The Bob Rumball Canadian Centre of Excellence for the Deaf (BRCCED) provides services & consultation for children and adults who are Deaf/Deaf blind/Hard of Hearing with a developmental disability and/or special needs. We also welcome hearing ASL users. BRCCED offers person & family centred support options that include respite; pre-employment and employment supports; virtual and in person recreational and skill building activities; and community connections opportunities in an ASL rich environment. Located in Halton and Toronto, and supporting surrounding areas.

Central West Specialized Developmental Services (CWSDS) provides non-emergency respite for families and caregivers for the weekend, or up to a week at a time. The program is recreationally focused taking into consideration the needs of the individuals currently utilizing the program. The CWSDS respite program operates on-site in a separate house and serves individuals with multiple needs over the age of 5
